Employment Verification

How to validate this document

We offer employment verification letters with a QR code to validate employment at Deel. This is controlled by the employee and can be toggled ON/OFF from Compliance & Documents within the Deel app.

This will allow you or 3rd parties to verify the current status of the Deel employee with up-to-date information. Additionally, this should remove the need to verify via phone or email.

How can I verify the authenticity of this letter?

- 1. Ensure employee has QR code enabled in Deel app (within Compliance & Documents)
- 2. Scan QR code
- 3. Verify employee is employed by Deel

Active status = Employee is currently working at Deel.

Document use

- 1. This document has been provided upon the employee's request for personal use to verify their employment.
- 2. This document is not an official/legal document and cannot be used to apply for visa, business travel, residency, work permits or sponsorship.
- 3. This document may contain sensitive information. It can be only used or provided by the requester to 3rd parties with the requester's consent.
- 4. In case this document is lost or stolen and to protect your data please deactivate the QR code access on your Deel profile (within "Compliance & Documents") to avoid any further 3rd party accessing your employment information.
